ASH WEDNESDAY 6th MARCH

We shall not be holding our usual Ash Wednesday service at St Mary's. In the spirit of our efforts to work more closely with our neighbours, We are proposing to go to St Lukes for Ashing at 8.00pm on Wednesday. We hope as many of the congregation as possible will show commitment to this idea.

ELECTORAL ROLL

Every six years the Electoral Roll of all churches in the Diocese have to be revised and 2019 is the year. It has to be completed between 10th and 23rd March. Forms are available in the bookshelf at the back of the church. I need a separate form for each person who wishes to be on the roll and young people who are going to attain the age of sixteen after 7th April should also complete a form. Being on the Electoral roll entitles you to vote at the APCM, to be a member of the PCC, to be a Sidesman, Server or Reader. It also means that if you have been missing from the congregation for a week or two and need our help, we know where to find you. After the APCM on 7th April, the old roll will no longer apply so if you do not complete a new form you will not be on the roll. Completed forms should be handed to Margaret
